

How to take a bus

When you get on the bus,

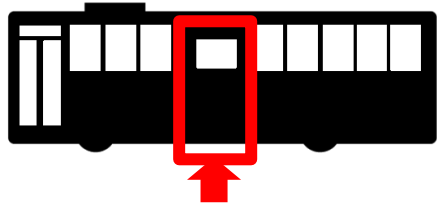

①At a bus stop: Line up.

②Check the bus route and destination.

③When a bus comes: Go inside by the door in the middle.

Pay with an IC card like SUICA / PASMO.

Touch the IC card to the card reader by the door.

Pay in cash.

Get a numbered ticket from the box by the door.

Pay attention on the bus,

①While the bus running, be seated or stand to hold a handrail or a strap.

②When your bus stop is announced, touch a button nearby to get off.

③The bus fare is on the fare chart in front. (The fare is for one adult on cash)

④Ready to pay the exact amount of the numbered ticket according to the fare chart.

⑤Make sure a balance is enough of your IC card. In case of a shortage, pay on cash or use the card after charging the IC card.

⑥You can get off the bus after it stops completely.

When you get off the bus,

Pay with an IC card like SUICA / PASMO.

Touch an IC card to the card reader.

Pay in cash.

Put the exact bus fare with a numbered ticket into the fare-box.

*The change won't come out automatically.

Pay the fare after changing the bill.

* A 1,000 yen bill can be changed.